We would very much like to thank the following:

The University of Kent and everyone at the Gulbenkian Theatre for providing us with regular rehearsal spaces and this spectacular venue for our performance

Our project funders; Youth Music

Beth James, Square Pegs Arts Artistic Director, for her support and guidance

And all of our amazing volunteers who give up so much of their time to make this happen

Square Pegs Arts are an award-winning Charity who have offered high quality, inspiring and innovative drama, music and arts projects for young people and adults with learning disabilities and autism for over 15 years in Kent and Medway.

We currently run five weekly drama groups, a singing group, holiday projects, accessible film screenings and a professional Theatre Company.

We celebrate difference, focus on the abilities of each individual and support everybody to shine in their own unique way.

We create supportive & caring environments where everyone is valued, respected, able to be themselves and feel a real sense of belonging. We nurture friendships, develop confidence and self-esteem, advance skills and improve wellbeing.

We feel passionately that aspirations & quality of experience shouldn't be compromised just because people have special needs. We strive to promote respect, awareness and inclusion of people with learning disabilities and autism across the wider community.
