

TRUMPET/BRASS TEACHER

Saturday term times

London Youth Conservatoire is one of the largest and most successful music schools in London with over 250 pupils and 30 teachers. The school offers a comprehensive music education from beginner to Grade 8 and beyond with individual instrumental lessons; musicianship and theory classes; and several orchestras, ensembles, jazz groups and choirs. We welcome students from 4 to 18 and adults.

Position:

London Youth Conservatoire is looking for an experienced and enthusiastic trumpet teacher from Saturday 4th of September 2021 onwards. Ability to teach other brass instruments up to grade 3 a plus (in particular; French horn, Trombone). The current workload is 4h30 hours of teaching on Saturdays (between 9.30am and 2.30pm) and we expect to be able to offer a similar number of hours in September.

Requirements:

- A relevant music degree, ideally gained at a music conservatoire (or similar)
- Experience of teaching children age 6+ and adults alike
- Ability to teach from beginner to diploma level
- A passion about pedagogy, with an ability to inspire the students
- An experience of the Kodály approach, or be willing to incorporate some elements in your teaching
- Good professional performing experience
- Be able to work as part of a team
- Excellent oral and written communication skills

Days:

Saturdays, during term time only, until 2nd July 2022. Term dates available on our website.

Employment type:

Self-employed position (annual renewable service contract).

Please note before applying: continuity of teaching at the school is valued and candidates should ideally be available every Saturday during term-time (please refer to dates on our website).

Enhanced DBS (Criminal Record check) is compulsory.

Service fee:

The rate is £34/hour

Location:

London Youth Conservatoire at Lady Margaret School, Parsons Green, Fulham SW6 4UN

Given the current Covid-19 situation teachers may be asked to give lessons online.

Dates Recruitment Process:

Application deadline: Tuesday 22nd June

Interview if selected: Tuesday 29th June, daytime

Start date: Saturday 4th September 2021
